Welcome back

It is truly great to see so many of you back attending club again. The members committee has recently met have planned lots of activities for you, which you can find overleaf. Some activities will have a cost but we will always keep this to a minimum. If you have any suggestions for new activities please talk to your club representatives who are,

Jackie Coleman
Gary Kuzian for Monday club

Victoria Leschenko
Andrew Holliday for Wednesday club

Nick Flynn for Friday club

Tickets

We have 12 tickets for the Commonwealth Games in Birmingham Wednesday 3rd August. They cost £10 this includes entry and transport.

If you would like to go please speak to you club leader.

The day is expected to start early and you will need to get yourself to Victoria Street for 8.20.

Food and drink kiosks will be available.

If there are more than 12 members that would like to go, we will pick names from a hat.

IMPORTANT NEWS: Increase

It is with regret but due to increasing costs, subs and transport fees will be going up from July

Subs from £2 to £3

Transport from £6 to £7

Donations

We are taking donations of sweets and chocolate for a tombola stall at the Church Fete at Christchurch on Saturday 11th June. This is a fundraising event for us so if you can spare a bar of chocolate or a bag of sweets, funds raised will benefit all clubs.

Come along and support this event, there will be lots to do and it will be fun too!
